

Activity 9: Worksheet

U.S. State Trivia

I. Put the number of the state nickname on the line following the description

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Land of the Midnight Sun | 4. Aloha State |
| 2. Grand Canyon State | 5. Evergreen State |
| 3. Golden State | 6. Empire State |

- A. Washington's nickname is the result of a lot of rain in this state. _____
- B. There is a building with this same name in New York's largest city. _____
- C. This nickname comes from something you can see in Alaska in the summer. _____
- D. Arizona's most famous landmark is its nickname. _____
- E. In Hawaii, this word means both hello and good-bye. _____
- F. California's nickname comes from a lot of sunshine in this state. _____

II. Put the number of the state on the line following the description

- | | |
|------------|------------------|
| 1. Kansas | 4. Florida |
| 2. Texas | 5. Minnesota |
| 3. Vermont | 6. Massachusetts |

- G. Beaches in the Sunshine State are visited by millions of tourists each year. _____
- H. The state known as the Land of 10,000 Lakes has the most lakes of any state. _____
- I. This state in New England is called the Bay State, after the Chesapeake Bay on its east coast. _____
- J. The Green Mountain State is also found in New England. _____
- K. The Lone Star State is the largest state in the lower 48 states. _____
- L. The Sunflower State lies directly to the west of Missouri. _____